CREATIVE TEAM NOTES
PRODUCTION:	SCENIC:	PROPS:
-We had a bit of a traffic and line up issue at the end of bows, so during group mic check I am going to line them up tomorrow and make sure we are all good!	-My actors who move the pouffe said that the wheels were making weird noises like maybe something was stuck in them? They also asked for me to check in because it was making the behind curtain transition louder and longer. Sorry, thank you!	-Sarah said y'all were going to potentially add tabs to the scarves to make them easier to pick up, thank you! -For Deedee, Sarah would like to talk about the presetting of spoons in glasses with you!

COSTUMES:	LIGHTS:	SOUND:
-MC accidentally spilled water on Sarah's dress during the Stumble Along scene.	A small part of the side light bar on the second wing stage right was acting up, but Flako is looking into it and Taury looked at it before the show. -Taury said they want to check out something on LQ 167 that looked off. HOUSE & PERFORMANCE NOTES

HOUSE COUNT:	PERFORMANCE NOTES:	AUDIENCE NOTES:
197	-Very solid show tonight. I can tell the actors are starting to settle in and get used to the flow of the show and the way it functions with tech and an audience! -Kitty and the gangsters were finding new bits and jokes during their scene with Feldzieg after Fancy Dress and it was so fun to see! -Toledo Surprise is looking so solid, and I am so proud of the actors for their outside work on their choreography.	-Pretty solid crowd for a Tuesday matinee! Lots of loud laughter and extra cheering that isn't usually implied in the show - yay! -Cold Feets got mid show cheers and rousing applause at the end! So proud of those two every night. That number is a feat of athleticism. -Jey and Cody got applause at the end of their scene by the pool! Phyllis and John also got applause after the spit take scene. -Standing ovation and rousing applause!
